LAST MONTHS MEETING

Firstly I hope that everyone had a very Merry Christmas and I wish you all a Happy New Year. I am looking forward to another year of Shadows music at the club and I wonder which tune will be next on my list to learn to play, although some say that I am still learning to play my first one properly.

Last month the club celebrated it's Sixth Birthday and what a night that was.

Many thanks to those who organised the raffle with a variety of prizes just in time for Christmas.

We started with a few numbers from Breakthru' to warm things up, then I was the first one up to play starting with Geronimo and then Wonderful Land.

I hit quite a few bum notes the first time round and I even missed out a middle section (did anyone notice?). The second time round was a lot better so I might be winning the battle against my nerves!

The Silver Shadows also joined us and played some great tunes including the melodic Mountains of the Moon and Man of Mystery, always on top form, lads.

We also heard from

Mike – Wild Theme from the film Local Hero
Bob - Peacepipe
John C – Something (in the way she moves)
Roy - I Could Easily Fall, Thing-Me-Jig
Stu – The Savage, Dynamite
Terry – Love Changes Everything
Barry - Move It, It'll Be Me
Nick – Atlantis, Man of Mystery

Nick testing his new guitar

It being Christmas we also had a selection of festive tunes

Derek – Last Christmas, Have Yourself a Merry Little Christmas
John C – Santa Claus is Coming to Town
Phil and Susan – Sleigh Ride

As always this was just a selection of the players and tunes from the night

THE CRICKETTES

On 4th January I saw The Crickets at The Seacombe Theatre in Sutton, This all girl band features music from The Shadows, The Ventures, The Spotnicks and a few movie hits such as the fast guitar intro from The film Pulp Fiction.

The bands guitar playing was as faultless as I expected with such a well known talented lead guitarist such as Zoe McCulloch.

To encourage younger people into music they are giving away a free ticket to any youngster (under 16) with a full paying adult ticket sold.

When the show had finished the band came into the Theatre lobby to talk to fans, answer questions, sign autographs and pose for photos.

I think that I may have been the only one at the show from The Surrey Shadows, however they will return next year, if you cannot wait that long you can catch them this summer on 19th July 2014 at

STAR PHOTO

Here is a photo sent in by Bob. This is a photo of our John Cade along with Hank Marvin taken in 1964.

I am hoping to get a little more info on this photo. As Hank has his pen out I guess that he was signing autographs before posing for the photo.
