

September 2016 Newsletter

Our August Club Meeting

Last month saw the return of Breakthru' and they opened up the evening with a good range of Shadows tunes. Then it was the turn of our club players who played three tunes rather than the usual two, which went rather well. It was a very good evening with a full club of people enjoying the entertainment.

The Players

Stuart Best played Perfidia, Atlantis and The Savage
Mike Gladwell played The Rumble, The High and The Mighty & South of The Border
Bob Withrington played Spring is Nearly Here, Peace Pipe and The Stranger
Alan Tarrant played Arabian Sunset, The Miracle and Ghost Riders
Johnny Graef on Lead & Vocals with Dave on Bass & Teresa on Drums played Apache, Wonderful Land and sang Travelin' Light
John Clarke played Man of Mystery, Sleepwalk & The Rise and Fall of Flingel Bunt
John Cade played Everything I do, Parisienne Walkways and Moonlight Shadow
Joe Lintott played Albertros and sang Move It! & Johnny Be Good
Eugene McGuigan played Shindig, Peace Pipe and Wonderful Land
Chris Blore played Spring is Nearly Here and Moonlight Serenade
Big Bob sang Mary Anne and You Know I Want You To Want Me
The Moonshiners with Dave, Barry, Teresa and Terry Scott sang The Young Ones, Hi Ho Silver Lining and Every Time That You Walk In The Room
